This “Parent and Me” class combines singing, movement, story time, music, vocabulary games, arts and crafts, and fun interactive exercises. This is a great age for your child to start learning Italian.

Piccoli Amici- “Little Friends” (4 to 6 years old)

Learning through play is the cornerstone of successful education at this age because it gives students the chance to practice what they are learning in creative ways. Piccoli Amici focuses on building vocabulary with an emphasis on communication and early writing and reading skills through games, arts and crafts, stories, songs and imaginative play. Level II is for students who already have a foundation in Italian.
