Tiberius International – Rimini, Italy

Tiberius International was founded in Rimini in 1994 and is located in the historic center at the Tre Re ("Three Kings") Palace. The school is run by Monica Golfieri and Donatella Donati, who are actively involved both in the coordination of the Italian language and culture courses, and in all the students' activities. Courses are held all year round and are aimed at meeting students' specific needs in order to develop their language skills and increase confidence. Teaching is based according to the six levels of knowledge provided by the Common European Framework of Reference for Language, and each course will be led by two teachers who will share the tasks of teaching vocabulary, pronunciation, conversation and grammatical structures. For the future Tiberius International wishes to achieve new goals to offer continuous innovation in the study of Italian language.
