Campus Infinito
Recanati, Italy
Scholarship Information
2016

Campus L'Infinito is a unique type of school in Italy, founded via the partnership between ELI Edizioni, a leading Italian publishing house specializing in language learning, and Laboratorio Edulingua, a renowned Italian language school for foreigners and teacher training center. Campus L'Infinito offers an original and unique learning experience, with innovative techniques and methods. In addition to language courses, Campus L'Infinito offers students an authentic experience of Italian life and culture, thanks to a rich program of events including trips to the most beautiful towns in the Marche region, entertaining and interactive experiences, wine and food tastings, themed workshops and cultural events. The school and apartments for students are located in the heart of historic Recanati in the fourteenth-century cloister of Saint Augustine monastery, just beneath the celebrated bell-tower that inspired Recanati-born poet Giacomo Leopardi in the poem "Il passero solitario".
