ACCADEMIC YEAR 2017/2018

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Italian Language and Culture Summer School

Course in English

DIRECTORS: Prof. Nunzio Allocca and Prof. Roberto Nicolai

Infostud code: 29075

1 - Aims

Italian Language and Culture Summer School targets foreign students and it focuses on Italian language and culture. It consists of two independent parallel courses, taught in English and in Italian, both with a final assessment test.

The Summer School exploits the extraordinary cultural heritage of Rome and its surrounding territory, and will consist of a series of conferences, language and cultural courses, and guided visits to the most important monuments and artistic sites of the city.

2 – Admission Requirements

The Italian Language and Culture Summer School welcomes foreign students with a secondary school diploma or equivalent educational title from foreign institutions, or students enrolled in a university course. All documentation should be submitted in one of the following languages: English, French, Italian, German, Spanish or Portuguese. Participants who are not enrolled in a university, but have a secondary school diploma are requested to indicate a national website where it is possible to verify that such diploma entitles access to a university.

3 – Places available

The minimum number of participants to activate a course is 6. The maximum number is 30. If the number of applications exceeds the number of places available, there will be a selection process.

4 – Duration and organisation of teaching activities

The course lasts two weeks, from July 2nd to 14th, 2018.

Total teaching activity is of 70 hours, of which 40 are lectures.

Consent to the use of personal data in accordance with the D.Lgs 196/2003

Purposes of the processing

In accordance with the section 13 D.lgs. n.196/2003 the provided data will be processed in the necessary measure and for the purposes connected to the enrollment and the attendance of the training course.

Methods of processing and subjects involved

The data will be both hand and computer processed. They may be communicated to institutions, public or private companies only if strictly necessary for the activities of the Summer School.

Provision of data and consequences in case of refusal

The provision of data is mandatory; refusing to provide the necessary data will result in the impossibility of being admitted to the Summer School and participate in its activities.

Holder and supervisor of the processing

The holder of the processing of the data is the Università degli Studi di Roma represented in person by its pro tempore legal representative, the Magnifico Rettore, domiciled for the role at Sapienza University of Rome, Piazzale Aldo Moro, 5 – 00185, Rome, Italy. The supervisors of the processing are the Directors of the Summer School.

Section 7 d.lgs. 196/2003 - Right to Access Personal Data and Other Rights

- The data subject shall have the right to be informed

- a) of the source of the personal data;
- b) of the purposes and methods of the processing;
- c) of the logic applied to the processing, if the latter is carried out with the help of electronic means;
- d) of the identification data concerning data controller, data processors and the representative designated as per section 5 paragraph 2;
- e) of the entities or categories of entity to whom or which the personal data may be communicated and who or which may get to know said data in their capacity as designated representative(s) in the State's territory, data processor(s) or person(s) in charge of the processing.

- The subject shall have the right to obtain

- a) updating, rectification or, where interested therein, integration of the data;
- b) erasure, anonymizing or blocking of data that have been processed unlawfully, including data whose retention is unnecessary for the purposes for which they have been collected or subsequently processed;
- c) certification to the effect that the operations as per letters a) and b) have been notified, as also related to their contents, to the entities to whom or which the data were communicated or disseminated, unless this requirement proves impossible or involves a manifestly disproportionate effort compared with the right that is to be protected.

- The subject shall have the right to object, in whole or in part,

- a) on legitimate grounds, to the processing of personal data concerning him/her, even though they are relevant to the purpose of the collection;
- b) to the processing of personal data concerning him/her, where it is carried out for the purpose of sending advertising materials or direct selling or else for the performance of market or commercial communication surveys.
