

THE DEPARTMENT OF ROMANCE LANGUAGES AND LITERATURES OF BOSTON COLLEGE

Master of Arts in Italian Studies

FULL TEACHING SCHOLARSHIPS FOR FALL 2021

The Boston College Department of Romance Languages and Literatures invites qualified students to apply for the Master of Arts program in Italian Studies. The department is committed to the professional formation of students, who graduate with broad experience in textual and cultural analysis, including a strong component of visual literacy and literary theory as well as pedagogical training and practice. Our courses focus on a wide range of texts and media from the early modern to the contemporary and seek an interdisciplinary approach to cultural, literary, and film studies.

All graduate students receive FULL TUITION REMISSION and a MONTHLY STIPEND

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- 2-year program (30 credits)
- Low student-faculty ratio: individualized attention for each student
- All graduate students are supported by Teaching Fellowships with full tuition remission and a stipend
- Summer research scholarships are available on a competitive basis
- Proximity to countless educational and cultural institutions in Boston
- Strong preparation for a PhD in Italian and secondary teaching
- Diverse student body including native and non-native Italian native speakers

FACULTY

Mattia Acetosò

Assistant Professor of Italian, Section Head, Graduate Program Director

Franco Mormando

Professor of Italian, RLL Department Chairperson

Laurie Shepard

Associate Professor of Italian, Undergraduate Program Director

Brian O'Connor

Assistant Professor of the Practice, Coordinator of Italian Language Instruction

APPLICATION DEADLINE - FEBRUARY 1, 2021

INFO <http://www.bc.edu/schools/cas/romlang/gradprog.html>

CONTACT Mattia Acetosò, Graduate Program Director (mattia.acetosobc.edu)