

VERY IMPORTANT - READ FIRST!

For the Italian Credential Exam, it is up to the candidate to choose which part of the exam he/she initially wishes to take. They might apply to the CCTC first if they wish to complete the Subtest I (General linguistics) prior to taking the Italian language part (Subtest III).

It is the candidates' responsibility to make sure they have completed all the requirements for the Italian Credentials.

Fondazione Italia – Italian Assessor Agency has no responsibility other than to administer the language part of the exam (Subtest III) and report those results back to the CCTC in the form provided.

TEST DATES & FEES

Refer to the following table for information about registration options, deadlines, and fees.

Test is held at Santa Clara University – 500 El Camino Real, Santa Clara, CA
Sobrato Discovery and Innovation Building - Room SCDI 3116 - Directions

Test Date & Time	Registration Deadline & Fee	Late Registration Deadline	Score Report Date

Withdrawal/Refund Policy

If after registering you wish to withdraw from the Italian subtest for which you have registered, you must notify Fondazione Italia in writing by 5:00 p.m. Pacific time no later than November 01, 2021. No refunds or credits will be issued after November 01, 2021.

If you registered during the late or emergency period, no refunds or credits will be issued if you decide to withdraw. If you are absent from the test, you will not receive a refund or credit of any kind.

Payment Methods

You may register online and pay via credit card at www.italianfoundation.org. The fees for registration by U.S. mail during the regular or emergency registration period may also be paid by personal check, cashier's check, or money order. Checks and money orders must be made payable to "Fondazione Italia" in U.S. dollars. Do not send cash.

Fees for other services requested by mail ("Additional Service Fees" listed in the table above) must be paid by cashier's check or money order. Checks and money orders must be made payable to "Fondazione Italia" in U.S. dollars. Do not send cash.

Payment Policies

If, for any reason, your payment for a test date or test service does not clear (for example, if your personal check is returned by the bank), you will have an outstanding balance.

In this case:

- ❖ you will be assessed an additional fee to cover the processing required to clear your account.
- ❖ you will not be allowed to register for future test dates until your balance, which includes the additional fee, is paid in full; you must make your payment to clear your account by cashier's check or money order only.
- ❖ Additionally, if a personal check submitted by you is returned by the bank, you will not be allowed to make any future payments by personal check.

If you have any outstanding balance owed by you to Fondazione Italia 13 calendar days after a test administration for which you were registered, all of your scores for that test date will be permanently voided and will not be reported to you, to the CCTC, or to any institutions. It is your responsibility to ensure that your account is paid in full, and all payments have cleared by this deadline. Any payment received later than 13 calendar days after the test date will be used to clear your account but will not alter the permanent voiding of your scores. You may wish to call Fondazione Italia prior to this deadline to confirm that your payment has been received and your account is clear.

The following additional policies apply to you when you have an outstanding balance:

- ❖ If you attempt to pay for any further services by check or money order, any payments received will be applied first to your outstanding debt, with any excess applied to the requested services.
- ❖ Any credits or refunds for which you may be eligible will be applied first to your outstanding debt, with any excess to be returned to you.

IDENTIFICATION POLICY

You must bring to the test administration a current, government-issued identification printed in English, in the name in which you registered, bearing your photograph and signature. Copies will not be accepted.

Acceptable forms of government-issued identification include photo-bearing driver's licenses and passports. The Department of Motor Vehicles provides acceptable photo-bearing identification cards for individuals who do not have a driver's license.

Unacceptable forms of government-issued identification include student and employee identification cards, social security cards, draft classification cards, and credit cards. If the name on your identification differs from the name in which you are registered, you must bring official verification of the change (e.g., marriage certificate, court order).

Your official score report will not be released unless you present the proper identification as described above no later than 15 calendar days after the test date. Instructions for providing proper identification after the test date will be provided at the test site. If you do not provide documentation of your identification within 15 calendar days after the test date, your scores will be permanently voided and will not be reported to you, to the CCTC, or to any institution.
